FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

18 U.S.C. §1341; 2: Mail Fraud; Aiding and Abetting and Causing an Act to Be Done as charged in Count 1 on the Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/ COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Sonny Vleisides, is hereby committed on Count 1 of the 23-Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 26 months, which shall be deemed satisfied by time already served in custody in this matter, taking into consideration the time period that the defendant served in custody from the time of his arrest in Italy in April 2007 until his extradition to the Central District of California in February 2009, and the time period in custody from his arrival in this district in February 2009 until his release on bond in June 2009. The Court notes that this term of 26 months is the equivalent of time served.

The defendant is hereby placed on supervised release, effective immediately, for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving loan programs, gambling or gaming activities, telemarketing activities, investment programs or any other business involving the solicitation of funds or cold-calls to customers without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant

USA vs. SONNY VLEISIDES

shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer; and

4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

FINE: All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine.

RESTITUTION: Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3), restitution is not ordered because (1) the number of identifiable victims is so large as to make restitution impracticable [3663A(c)(3)(A)]; and (2) determining complex issues of fact related to the cause or amount of the victim's losses would complicate or prolong the sentencing process to a degree that the need to provide restitution to any victim is outweighed by the burden on the sentencing process [3663A(c)(3)(B)].

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT: It is further ordered defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment fee of $100, which is due immediately to the Clerk of the Court.

SENTENCING FACTORS: Having considered the sentencing factors enumerated at 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the advisory guideline range of 60 months pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 5G1.1(a), the binding plea agreement entered into by the parties under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), the parties' joint sentencing position, and the nature and extent of defendant's cooperation with the government as discussed in court under seal, the Court finds that the following sentence is reasonable and sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes stated in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution-pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).
